The pay to come out of a fund recently gotten by Hon. Richard S. Whaley from the government.

For several years past the last Saturday in September has been many of our citizens been observed as Orphan's Work Day. The idea is to get men and women, boys and girls, to devote the earnings of the income of the day to the support of some orphanage. We understand that all institutions invite co-operation in this plan and that September 30th is the day agreed upon.

The following members of the National Guard of South Carolina now at Ft. Pao, Texas, are citizens and former citizens of Pinewood. Maj. A. M. Brailford, Perry and Robbie Brown, Jim Weeks, Louie DesChamps, Eddie Byrd, Theron Stack, Ransom Richardson, Eli Parker, McBeth Hodges, Jack Owens and Charles Jackson. Address mail to the boys, Co. L, 2nd South Carolina Infantry, Ft. Pao, Texas.

The State Department of Agriculture has a fund provided mostly by private subscription for the relief of sufferers from the recent hurricane. At a meeting of citizens here on the 14th inst. it was decided to request the trustees of the school districts in the county to obtain information as to persons in their districts to whom such aid should be given. Persons who have been rendered destitute by the storm, and are without credit, whether white or colored, are the ones to whom such assistance will be given. A circular letter will be sent to each school trustee in the county. It is of the highest importance that all persons take notice of this, and take steps promptly to assist the trustees.

Death of Mr. W. L. McFaddin.

Mr. W. Luther McFaddin, a highly esteemed gentleman of the Sandy Grove section of Clarendon county, died at the McLeod Infirmary, Florence, Tuesday. He had been in bad health for months and was operated on on the 14th inst. July 28th. He stood the operation well, and when his uncle, Mr. J. F. McFaddin, of this town visited him Sunday, he seemed to be improving satisfactorily, but a sudden relapse proved fatal.

He was 71 years of age. He is survived by a widow, who was a daughter of Mr. Thomas Burgess of Mouson, and six children.

Funeral services were held at 10 a. m., yesterday and interment made in the Burgess burying ground near Bethel church, Rev. D. M. Clark, pastor, officiating. A large concourse of relatives and friends paid their last tribute to the memory of this good man and true.

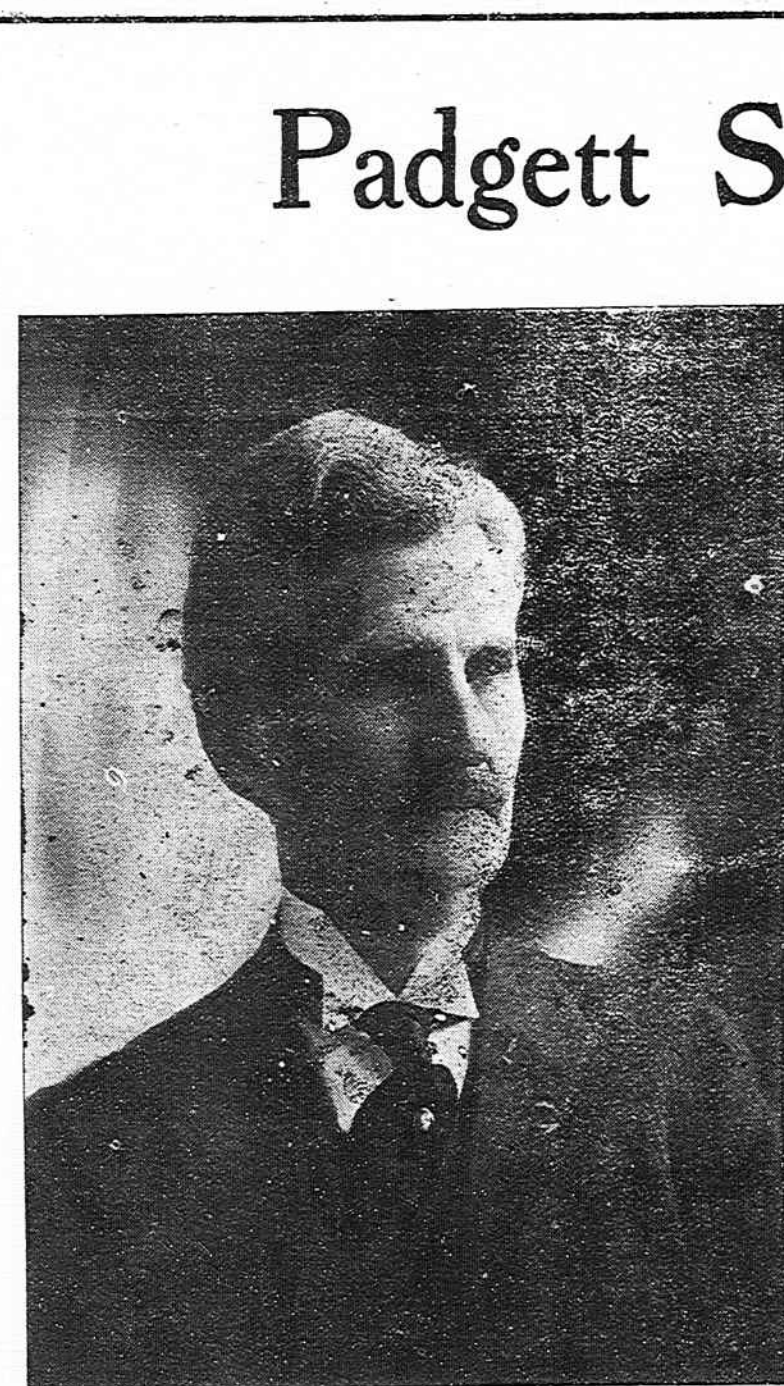

It is a remarkable coincidence that Mr. McFaddin and Mr. P. M. Young were operated upon at the same infirmary the same day for the same complaint, and both succumbed to relapse.

Sunday School Convention.

On the morning of August 5th, I, in company with two other friends boarded the train at Sumter, for the Sunday school convention which was to convene at Florence. Our train was very crowded, and we were met by friends, and ushered right on to the church. Upon arriving there, meeting with friends we had not met for a length of time what pleasant memories it brought back to us. It seemed that the same trees, birds and flowers were among our friends to welcome us.

The convention consisted of songs, speeches, and prayer. All of the speeches were fine, especially the ones having for their subjects, "The Religion of the Sunday school to the Home," and the relation of the Home to the Sunday school," by Rev. Derrick Duncan. Miss Chandler's speech on "Elementary teaching" in the Sunday school was also fine. I am sure that every visitor there joins me in extending thanks to the people of Florence who so cordially entertained us, and for the delightful dinner we enjoyed. We have been invited to stay over until the following day, needed no persuasion, so we boarded the train the next evening for home. We came home enthused over Sunday school work, and the delightful dinner we enjoyed with the Foresters folks entertaining another Sunday school convention.

Mr. Whaley Owes it to You to Meet Padgett on the Stump.

The campaign meetings were arranged by the party under the rules of which Mr. Whaley is running. The purpose of the meetings was to enlighten the voters on the issues of the campaign, and give you the opportunity of meeting the candidates face to face. The mandate of the party was ignored by Mr. Whaley. In his letter read at the first campaign meeting on the seventh, instant, he said: "The Senate has added two Amendments to the Naval Bill providing almost a million more dollars for the navy yard located in the State and situate in the first congressional district. I am informed that these amendments will meet with vigorous and vicious attacks in the house when the report is made. I believe it my paramount duty to remain here to fight it out with them." The reason assigned was evidently a subterfuge to excuse his absence from the campaign meetings. The following is copied verbatim from the Congressional Record of the proceedings of Congress of Tuesday, the 8th, instant, Mr. Kitchin being the leader of the Democratic party and Mr. Mann being the leader of the Republican party:

"Mr. Kitchin. Mr. Speaker, before I make the motion to adjourn I wish to announce that on Tuesday next, August 15, 1916, we will take up for consideration the conference report on the Naval Appropriation Bill.

Mr. Mann. I think the gentleman ought to state that on that occasion there will probably be a roll call on the motion to concur in the Senate Amendment respecting the building program?

Mr. Kitchin. That is true.

The Speaker. The gentleman from North Carolina announces that on Tuesday next there will be taken up for consideration the conference report on the Naval Appropriation Bill, and there will probably be a roll call on that day.

Mr. Kitchin. The Chairman of the Committee on Naval Affairs, (Mr. Padgett) will make a motion to concur in the Building Program as inserted in the Senate.

The Speaker. And there will undoubtedly be roll calls on that day.

This was official notice that the vote would not be taken until the 15th, instant, and the absent congressmen were not called upon to return before the 15th. It will therefore be seen that Mr. Whaley could have attended all of the campaign meetings and yet have returned to Washington several days before the vote on the Naval Appropriation Bill. Other South Carolina congressmen who were opposed for re-election had time to leave Washington and meet their opponents on the stump the very same week that Mr. Whaley remained in Washington.

Has Mr. Whaley anything to Fear or Conceal by not Meeting Padgett on the Stump?

A Disfranchised Democrat.

A shame to the Democracy of the State of South Carolina. On the 7th inst. I was notified by our Hon. chairman of our county Executive Committee, to be and appear before said Committee to show cause why my name should not be dropped and stricken from the Gibbons Mill club roll, being away from home, did not receive notice in time to appear, or put in protest. So I suppose I am now a disfranchised Democrat and will have to find some other party to have the privilege of enjoying my franchise right. All because I used my initials in writing my name on the club roll. Well I am 64 years old, have been a Democrat all my life and I suppose it will go hard with me to make a change at this late day. I was living in Clarendon county when I became 21 years old, my first vote was cast in Clarendon county. I have helped fill the offices in the county and State for forty three years. I was in the Hampton raid when the county and State was redeemed from carpet baggers rule. I was in the Tillman raid, and have always been faithful to the Democratic party, and now I am a disfranchised Democrat, all because a few sore headed politicians who constituted our State Executive Committee, saw fit to change the rules of the Democratic party claiming by such action that the Democratic party was rotten, and also that the Secretaries of all the Democratic clubs of the State were dishonest, all this was done by politicians in order to attain their political ends. Was not the Democratic party just as safe under the old rules as it is under the new rules. I say that it was, but the classes and the masses are divided in this country, and in both houses of Congress, and we are told in Holy Writ that a house divided against itself cannot stand. So I think the time has come when we should organize a reform party in the State, allowing all white men to vote without any restriction or incumbrance by rules or regulations, and I also think it is high time for our Democratic party to set up and take notice of the levies of taxation which have been placed upon our people. Our taxes are as high as they were when we were under radical rule, our taxes are two-thirds higher than they were ten years ago, our people are restless under this burden, and something will have to be done to reduce taxation in this country as the burden is becoming unbearable.

A Social Event.

Sardinia, S. C., August 12, 1916. Chaperoned by the charming Misses V. N. Rush, W. R. Burgess and J. W. Millams, arranged and executed by Messrs. M. E. DuBose and Eugene McFaddin, the social lions of our enterprising and sociable little city, a very enjoyable program of entertainment and dance was carried out as a starter for the season.

A very large assemblage of the local present and every one enjoyed to their hearts content. Music was furnished by Prof. Dave (C. O. L.) the local virtuoso, and his band, Our Symphony Quartette, led by Mr. Louis Weinberg assisted by Messrs. Edward Player, Jimmie McFaddin, M. E. DuBose, and Eugene McFaddin, have acquitted themselves creditably by rendering some very sweet songs, while Miss Davis from Alcolu, has delighted the assemblage with several fine selections on the piano and was heartily applauded.

The assemblage was very select and formal, the ladies wore very elaborate evening dresses, consistent at this season, and the young beaux had togged themselves appropriately for the occasion. The attire were of such elaborate variations that the writer feels his helplessness of description, all he can say that style and charm itself prevailed.

After the dance was over, in the few hours of the night, all the visitors were invited to the battery, and wholesome light lunch was served under the residence of mine host, Marion DuBose, and all the charming and gallant guests departed with a smile on their lips and happiness within their hearts, for their homes, ever ready to return if chance permitted.

The following couples took part in the dances at the auditorium hall: Mr. Julian Weinberg and Miss Sadie Wheeler, Mr. Ben Nease and Miss E. Berger, Mr. Edward Player and Miss Samie Wheeler, Mr. M. E. DuBose and Hazel Rush, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Doty, Mr. Eugene McFaddin and Miss Allerdine McFaddin, Mr. Joe Harris and Miss Margaret Nimmer, Mr. Paul McFaddin and Miss M. Garland, Mr. Garland and Miss Anna McFaddin, Mr. J. M. Faddin and Miss May DuBose, Mr. Davis DuBose and Miss Earneestine McFaddin, Mr. D. M. Turbeville and Miss Margaret DuBose, Mr. and Mrs. Harris, Mr. Nettles and Miss Miller, Mr. Carter and Miss Davis, Mr. Ed. Eoder and Miss Bessie McFaddin, Mr. L. Weinberg and Miss Julie McFaddin, and many others whose names the writer does not remember. You may guess.

The writer is informed that Sardinia social leaders are very gratified of having so many visitors of the best social classes among their neighbors to come and take part in entertainments, and cordially invites them all to come and mingle with them and enjoy life. It is our intention to put Sardinia on the map not only from a financial and business standpoint, but also in a social way equal to her importance.

suffered Three Years Without Minutes Ease

Mrs. Pilgrim Would Have Terrible Attacks Nearly Every Day Like Horrible Dreams.

She Declares First Bottle of Tanlac Completely Relieved Her—Had Been in Bad Health 10 Years.

After suffering three long years with out "a minute's relief" from stomach trouble, Mrs. Rena Pilgrim, of 15 Hart street, Anderson, S. C., found complete relief in the first bottle of Tanlac she took, according to a statement she gave the Tanlac representative. Her statement follows:

"I suffered from stomach trouble, which caused me continual pain for three years. I did not have a minute's relief. I could not eat anything, and I was so weak I could not do my housework. I had been in bad health for ten (10) years, and my ailments had been very bad during the past five years.

"My nerves were all torn to pieces, too. Nearly every day for about nine months, and less frequently during the two previous years, I would have terrible attacks. My nerves had some thing to do with them, I suppose. These attacks would continue an hour or longer and I would become unconscious. Members of my family several times thought I was dying, and I thought so myself. When these attacks were off it seemed as if I had had a horrible dream, and I would be too weak to sit up or talk, even, for two or three hours after the spells ended. Before I took Tanlac I was so weak I could not do my housework and I would have to go to bed three or four times and rest a short while during the time I was cooking each meal. I did not dare eat meat, and everything I ate would cause me terrible pains.

"I had tried so many medicines and spent so much money without getting relief that I had lost faith in medicine almost and had about lost hope of ever getting well again. I was persuaded to take Tanlac, though, and when I began taking it I could not walk across the street.

"Well, I am a well and happy woman now, and it is all due to Tanlac. I do my cooking, wash clothes occasionally, and go to town and anywhere I care to, for my strength has been returned. The very first bottle of Tanlac eased those terrible attacks and stopped the pain in my stomach. You can imagine how grateful I felt when I was freed of those pains after three long years of steady suffering.

"Since I began taking Tanlac I have taken two trips to Georgia to visit relatives. I never get tired now and I find a lot of pleasure in my housework. I am 45 years of age, but I am going around a lot now to make up for the time I lost during the past five years. I can eat anything now and a lot of it, and I never have indigestion.

"I am really a new and an entirely different woman now, so grateful has been the change since my health was improved. I felt fine when I had finished the second bottle of Tanlac, and I have not taken any in over a month. I bought six bottles at one time, but I gave one to a friend, and other members of my family took the rest. I took just two (2) bottles.

"I sure can recommend Tanlac, and I have persuaded a lot of my friends to take it. If you had seen me before and after I took Tanlac, you would say it has worked a real miracle for me. That is just the size of it. Tanlac worked a miracle for me."

"Tanlac," the Master Medicines, is exclusively sold in Manning by the Dickson Drug Store; in Summerton by D. O. Rhame, Jordan L. W. Nettles, New Zion Shaw & Pionden, Pinewood Farmer Supply Co., Silver Davis and Johnson.
